

Frank Rushton Neighborhood Association Bylaws

Name

The name of the group shall be Frank Rushton Neighborhood Association.

Purpose

The purpose of the Association shall be to promote civic pride, safety, and beautification in the Frank Rushton Neighborhood through the efforts of residents, property owners, landlords, and businesses in addressing issues that affect the overall condition and the quality of life in our neighborhood.

Membership

Any person, who is over 18 years of age and resides in or owns property in the Frank Rushton Neighborhood, shall be eligible for membership. The boundaries of the Frank Rushton Neighborhood are Mission Road and Rainbow Boulevard and 43rd Avenue and 47th Avenue. An active member helps the Association fulfill its purpose and by-laws, attends and participates in meetings of the Association, and may serve as an officer and on committees.

Dues

The Association shall be a not for profit corporation and shall not charge membership dues.

Coordinating Committee

The Coordinating Committee shall administer regular and special business established by the membership of the Association and may react to ad hoc situations or emergencies for the Association, subject to approval at the next regular meeting.

The Coordinating Committee shall consist of the elected officers and committee chairpersons, who are willing and able to perform designated duties. Officers and committee chairpersons, who have been confirmed by an 80% vote of the membership at a general business meeting, may vote on the Coordinating Committee and access the membership database. Coordinating committee meetings shall be open to other participants.

Committees may be established and shall specify what duties they will take, subject to approval at the next membership meeting.

Officers

The officers shall be President and Vice President (or Co-presidents), Secretary, and Treasurer. They shall be elected at the November meeting and serve for one year beginning in January.

Duties of Officers

President: The President shall provide leadership and vision, preside over business meetings, and represent the group at special meetings for matters concerning the Association. The President shall chair the Coordinating Committee and may establish ad hoc committees at any meeting and appoint a chairman, subject to approval at the next membership meeting. Co-Presidents may be elected.

Vice President: The Vice President shall assist the President in fulfilling official duties and may represent the group at special meetings for matters concerning the Association.

Secretary: The Secretary shall record minutes of the monthly meetings, prepare correspondence to and from the group, and serve on the Coordinating Committee.

Treasurer: The Treasurer shall manage all financial assets of the association, maintain financial records, prepare financial reports, submit the Not-for-Profit Corporate Annual Report, and serve on the Coordinating Committee. The accounts may be audited at any time by majority vote at a general meeting.

Delegation of Powers: In the event of a continued absence or inability of an officer to fulfill designated duties during his or her term of office, an 80% vote of the membership may delegate any or all powers or duties of such officer to another officer of the Association.

Meetings

Regularly scheduled, general business meetings shall be held at 6:30 p.m. on the second Tuesday of odd numbered months, excluding January. Special meetings may be scheduled as deemed necessary by members.

Quorum

At least seven members shall be present to hold an official meeting.

Business

Business shall be enacted only at general meetings that have been announced to resident members by publication and have a quorum in attendance. Business shall be proposed in the form of motions, discussed, and decided by an 80% vote of approval of the members present.

An 80% vote of approval shall be required for the Treasurer to spend or transact more than $25 of Association monies per month. The Treasurer shall report all income and expenditures at the next general meeting.

Amendments

These by-laws may be amended at a general business meeting by an 80% vote of approval by the members present, provided that the meeting and the proposed changes are announced by publication prior to the meeting.

Dissolution

If for any reason, the Frank Rushton Neighborhood Group should dissolve, the monies, equipment, and supplies shall be given to the Rosedale Development Association for disposition in the Rosedale Community.
